

ADVERTISEMENT FOR A RESEARCH ASSISTANT

Introduction

The Health Care & Support Services Consultative Committee has established by Tertiary and Vocational Education Commission to strengthen linkages between the health care & support service providers and Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) sector in the country. As apex body of the TVET sector, TVEC needs to obtain industry requirements and its existing demand and future trends to take relevant initiatives of the sector. One of the main function of the Committee to identify Skills gaps of health care & support services sector in the country.

To complete the Skills Gap report the Consultative Committee with the support of Association of Private Hospitals and Nursing Homes are looking for a qualified person who could work on fulltime/part time basis as a Research Assistant to coordinate a study conducted by Health Committee at Tertiary and Vocational Education Commission

Requirements:

An undergraduate or a recently passed out graduate from a university is most suitable

Basic knowledge in working in English & Sinhala language

Computer literacy

Research Report writing Skills

Capability to travel around the country to collect data as necessary

This study is coordinated by the Association of Private Hospitals and Nursing Homes and the Private Health Services Regulatory Council on the request and carried out to identify the skills needs of health and care sector in Sri Lanka and to identify measures to overcome the gaps that exists. The work involves collecting data related to the existing human resource cadre according to various skill categories attached to the Ministry of Health, Private Health Sector and other non-governmental organizations and their requirements for the same in three to five years. This will involve visits to the Ministry of Health, other organizations related to health care and officers of the Provincial Directors of Health Services offices spread throughout the island.

The study may last 3-5 months and attractive remuneration will be provided.

If interested Please contact and send your self-prepared CV with research experience to

Dr S Ratnapreya

Vice Chairman, (Health Committee) Secretary, (Association of Private Hospitals and Nursing Homes)

Phone: 0773497515

Email: sunilr@lankahospitals.com

Note – Closing date for the application 20.11.2020