NVQ Circular 06/2021

Director General, Department of Technical Education and Training (DTET),
 Chairman, National Apprentice and Industrial Training Authority (NAITA)
 Chairman, Vocational Training Authority (VTA)

Competency-Based Assessment (CBA) for Candidates appear through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) routes

The purpose of this circular is to expedite the process of RPL applications.

2. Selection of Assessment Centre

All RPL assessments shall be conducted only at either the following institutes or industry places approved by the TVEC

- i. Training institutes with an accredited course in the relevant occupation/ trade with a "P" Number (e.g. P01/0000) issued by the TVEC.
- ii. Industry places registered through NAITA with an "E" number (e.g. E01/0000) issued by the TVEC

The respective area inspector of NAITA shall recommend the industry place/s and forward the recommendation reports to the TVEC. The TVEC will issue an "E" number to facilitate the assessment.

- iii. RPL assessment centre with "A" number (e.g. A01/0000) issued by the TVEC.

The officer appointed by the DTET/NAITA/VTA shall recommend the industry place/s and forward the recommendation reports to the TVEC. The TVEC will issue an "A" number to facilitate the assessment.

3. Selection of Assessors for Occupations/ Trades which do not have TVEC registered assessors

a. In case, if there are no registered assessors for occupations/ trades, accept the applications from the candidates and inform the TVEC. The TVEC will register an assessor from the development committee member of the respective National Competency Standard (NCS) and issue a registration number temporarily to facilitate the assessment.
