

Chengdu Agricultural College Delegation visited to Sri Lanka to explore and exchange ideas and opportunities between the countries from 1st November to 3rd November. During this time, Dr. Janaka Jayalath, Deputy Director General of Sri Lanka Tertiary and Vocational Education Commission and his colleagues received the delegation, and the two sides exchanged views.

At the meeting, Dr. Janaka introduced the development of vocational education in Sri Lanka, and Digital Economy based Vocational Qualifications Framework for Developing Countries (DEVES). The delegation of Chengdu Agricultural College introduced their schools, disciplines and facilities. The two sides reached cooperation consensus on talent cultivation, studying in China through Scholarship arrangement, teacher exchanges, joint educational program, Co-development of DEVES standards, and signed a memorandum of understanding.

"Sri Lanka Rural Revitalization Institute of Chendu Agricultural College", which is to be built by the school, was listed by both sides at the meeting.

In addition, during the visit to Sri Lanka, under the coordination of the Vocational Education Committee. The delegation visited Mr. Samarakoon, Chairman of Sri Lanka National Plantation Group. The two sides discussed the cooperation on rural revitalization project of Sri Lanka's characteristic agricultural leisure tourism development mechanism.

Accompanied by the relevant cadres of the Sri Lanka National Plantation Group, the college delegation learned about the coconut grove mixed agri-food processing and other projects on the spot, understood the production and processing of Sri Lanka's characteristic agricultural products, and evaluated the path and method of creating tourists' participation in leisure agriculture based on the coconut grove farm.

